

Cornhuskers Tramp on Notre Dame 14-6—Missouri Tigers Scare Jayhawks Off

DAWSON'S CREW SHOWS SUPERIOR BRAND OF FIGHT

Cornhuskers Put Great Climax on Glorious Grid Season

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 30.—Nebraska crowned its string of football achievements on Nebraska field today by demonstrating a superior quality of football in a sectional contest with Notre Dame university, the game ending with the Cornhuskers on the larger end of a 14 to 6 score. More than 15,000 spectators watched the Nebraska team plow great holes through the line of the South Bend team.

Notre Dame was not lacking in making gains, though the scale hung heavily in favor of the victorious Cornhuskers. While the aerial game of Notre Dame was not employed to the advantage that was expected, it served as the only touchdown scored by the south Benders. Miller's great run down the side line after a fair catch of Leyden's forward pass in the third period, was one of the outstanding spectacular features of the game.

H. Dowitt paralleled this achievement in the fourth period, when he plunked through the left side of Notre Dame's line for 40 yards, bringing the ball to the opponent's 15-yard line. A lucky tackle by Stuhldreher saved a touchdown.

In the first period, Nebraska lost a touchdown by a costly fumble by Noble when the ball was within a few feet of the goal line.

Nebraska's scores were made in the second period. The first came after a series of line plunges by Noble, Russell, Lewellyn and Hartley had advanced the ball to within 15 yards of Notre Dame's goal line. Scherer, the Cornhusker right end, ran to his co-end's corner for 16 yards, which brought the ball to the 3-yard line. Hartley, plowed through the remaining distance for the touchdown and then kicked the extra point. Later in the period Hartley shot a forward pass to Noble, who broke loose around Notre Dame's left end for the second touchdown.

Frederick, Nebraska, regular quarter back, out of the game with a broken leg, was carried to the field and watched the game from the side lines. John J. Pershing occupied a special box and was Nebraska's guest of honor. He appeared at the game in civilian clothes and was accompanied by a small party of friends.

Colgate Overwhelms Columbia U 39 to 6

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Displaying a powerful, bewildering running attack, Colgate's eleven overpowered Columbia today, 39 to 6. The Maroons rushed over a touchdown in the first few minutes of play and after a brief offensive by Columbia in the second quarter, the up-staters turned the contest into a rout.

Tryon, hard running half back, and Morgan, the Maroon field general, ripped off long gains through the line and around the ends repeatedly. Tryon scored five touchdowns, one on a spectacular 52-yard run in the third quarter and another in the last period after a dash half the length of the field.

O'Dowd Wins From Rosenberg in 8th On Foul; to Probe

NEW YORK, Nov. 30.—Mike O'Dowd of St. Paul won on a foul in the eighth round of a scheduled 15-round bout here today, with Dave Rosenberg of New York. Rosenberg was disqualified for hitting low after two minutes and 28 seconds of fighting in that round. O'Dowd was leading by a wide margin when the bout ended.

The judges' decision awarding the bout to O'Dowd gives him the recognition of the New York state athletic commission as world's middleweight champion.

Rosenberg twice had been warned by Referee Patsy Haley in the eighth round when suddenly O'Dowd crumpled up and sank to the floor. Referee Haley immediately disqualified Rosenberg and the bout was awarded to the St. Paul boxer by the judges.

Immediately after the bout Deputy Police Commissioner Harry Burdick ordered that Rosenberg's share of the receipts be withheld pending an investigation by the athletic commission. O'Dowd outfought and outboxed Rosenberg all the way, scoring a knockdown in the third round. When Referee Haley was forced to warn the New Yorker for hitting low, O'Dowd had a big lead and was still going strong.

The weights announced were: O'Dowd, 155; Rosenberg, 154.

Newman Lining Up Card for Tuesday Night at Convention Hall

Cowboy Padgett, Ray Alvis fighting welterweight, who meets K. O. Loughlin in the main event of the big fight card at convention hall Tuesday night will arrive in Tulsa today to add the finishing touches to his training for the big battle.

According to a telegram to the sporting editor of The World last night, Loughlin will arrive either tomorrow or Saturday, it was officially announced.

Louie Newman, promoter, was in Henryetta yesterday with Warrick Smith, who boxed there, and announced that he would arrange his preliminary card for the fight program today and tomorrow. He is figuring on several fast bouts to give the fans a mouthful of fighting when they flock to convention hall Tuesday.

Padgett, who has made quite a record this year since his defeat at the hands of Champion Jack Britton here, is going at top speed now and his fight Tuesday should find him in the best condition of his career. He held his own with Dave Shade and several other fast boys in his last string of fights and is going like a house on fire now.

He will start working out at the Tulsa Athletic club gymnasium in the Terminal building this afternoon. Starting tomorrow, the preliminary fighters and both Padgett and Loughlin will work out regularly every afternoon until the day of the fight, it was announced last night.

Palmer-Smith Fight Tonight.

BARTLESVILLE, Nov. 30.—The 20-round boxing bout between Andy "Kid" Palmer of New York and "Curley" Smith of Bartlesville, scheduled to take place here tonight, has been postponed until Friday night, December 1, according to an announcement made by the promoters.

Georgetown Registers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Georgetown trampled rough-shod over George Washington in their annual foot ball game today, winning 46 to 6, with the line-up comprised chiefly of second string players. This was the eighth victory for Georgetown in the last nine years, the other game resulting in a tie. Georgetown's first string players were held in reserve for Saturday's contest with Lafayette.

Cuticura Heals Severe Eczema Over Face and Body

"I had a severe case of eczema. It broke out in pimples all over my face and body and itched so badly that I could not rest at night. My clothing became so greasy that I had to throw it away and caused it to burn. I tried several different remedies but did not get relief. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. The first night I used them I got relief so purchased more, and after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and one box of Cuticura Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Thomas L. White, Rt. 1, Hartwell, Ga., Feb. 4, 1922.

Cuticura Soap to cleanse and purify, Cuticura Ointment to soothe and heal and Cuticura Talcum to powder and perfume are ideal for daily toilet purposes.
